ONE OF THE SEASONS' BEST.

There are heroes and heroes on the stage, but the prince of them all is "Monte Cristo." He is at once the exemplar and the despair if the lesser dramatists and he makes the swashbucklers of cheap melodramas look like farce comedy characters. The secret of the pre-eminence of Edmond Dantes can be easily discovered by watching the play as it will be presented by Fred G. Conrad's Company at the Opera House, Paris, Ky., Tuesday, October 15th. Eugene Moore, the noted actor, who has played the star part in "Monte Cristo," innumerable times, furnished the play which Mr. Conrad uses and with this version go the traditions of the part as Mr. Moore always played it. This actor has a clear vision of what makes a real hero, and he has endowed his Count of Monte Cristo accordingly. Mr. Conrad apparently has gathered an exceptional company. He will use the necessary quantity of special scenery.

Pigeon vs. Train.

The speed of a carrier pigeon was tasted Thursday by William Yent, who turned one of A. J. Anglin's young pigeons loose while standing on the viaduct in Lexington at the same time the East bound Chesapeake & Ohio train pulled out at 11:21 o'clock. The destination was Morehead, a distance of 66 miles from Lexington. The train arrived at Morehead at 1:30 o'clock and the pigeon arrived at Mr. Anglin's residence at 1:43 o'clock, the train making the trip in 13 minutes less time than the pigeon.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription." The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder—curing a large per cent. of catarrhal diseases of these organs. Even in chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections it is often successful in affecting cures.

"The Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar to women, and especially those irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak worried, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.
The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into "Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorize stomach, liver and bowels.

Col. John A. Prall.

Col. John A. Prall, Sr., died at Danville last Wednesday evening, after a long illness of paralysis. The Danville Advocate has the following notice of him:

"Col. Prall was about 81 years of age, and had been in feeble health for a number of years. Before and during the Civil War he was one of the most prominent lawyers in the State, enjoyed a large and lucrative practice at Paris, his home.

"Just before the commencement of the Civil War he was elected Senator from the Bourbon district and took a leading part in the legislation during that stormy period in the history of our country. He was a firm and unflin-ging Union man and as a member of the Upper House of the Kentucky Legislature combated the proposition that Kentucky cast her lot with the Confederacy, a measure that failed of success through the efforts of himself and others who stood with him against Governor Beriah Magoffin and those of strong Southern feelings who wanted the State to go with the South.

"The greatest speech of his life was made by Col. Prall in the Senate against the secession of Kentucky from the Union. He was for the Union right or wrong, and his speech had a powerful effect in holding Kentucky firm in the ranks.

"Unlike many of the Union men who served in the Legislature with him at that time, many of whom quit the Republican party when Abraham Lincoln issued the proclamation of freedom to the negroes, Col. Prall stood firmly as a Republican.

"Col. Prall was a native of Woodford county, and after reaching manhood settled at Paris, Ky., where he studied law with Major George W. Williams, the grandfather of General Roger D.
Williams, of Lexington. Major Williams was a fine lawyer and a gentleman of the old school, noted for his great urbanity and elegance of manner. The late Col. A. M. Swope also studied law with him. Col. Prall was a graduate of Centre College, Danville.

"After beginning practice, Col. Prall married Miss Nannie Williams, a daughter of his law preceptor, by whom he had four children now living, Lottie, who married T. Hamilton Mc-Coy, now of New York City; Freddie, who married Harvey Littell, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; John Prall, Jr., cashier of a bank at Perryville, Ky., and Mrs.
Marie Newman, of this city.

"Several years after the close of the Civil War, Col. Prall moved to Lexington, residing there for a number of years. He purchased the residence, on South Limestone street, now occupied by Prof. Miller. In looking up the deeds to some adjacent property Col.
Prall discovered quite a tract that still belonged to the State, having never been covered by an ancient patent.
He at once filed a claim on this vacant land and obtained a patent for it, paying for it $1.25 an acre, the old State price. Dividing the land into lots and selling them, he founded that portion of Lexington now known as Pralltown.

Two of the streets he named for members of his family: Winnie street for his wife's sister, Miss Winnie Williams, and Lottie street for his eldest daughter. During the 70's Col. Prall was United States Assessor for the Lexington District, and later was made United States Pension Agent, both of which offices he filled with marked ability and satisfaction to all.

"Nineteen years ago Col. Prall removed to Danville, where he resided till his death. The remains will be taken to Lexington for burial this afternoon. His daughters in New York have been wired and should they not reach Lexington Thursday the interment will be postponed until Friday.
The funeral services were held at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock this morning by Dr. W. L. Dorgan. He had been a member of the Baptist church for 65 years.

The Price of Health.

"The price of health in a malarious district is just 25 cents; the cost of a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Ella Slayton, of Noland, Ark.
New Life Pills cleanse gently and impart new life and vigor to the system.
